

TWIRLYBIRD STIRS UP AIR CURRENTS (AND FOREST ACTIVISTS' EMOTIONS...)

In the mid-morning hours last Tuesday, the horrid roar of a bladed metal creature was heard. The black, red + white helicopter flew up Black Creek into the Kelsey drainage and returned 15-20 minutes later heading downstream. It flew within 1,500 yards of basecamp.

NOTICES:

- Since attempts to make microwave popcorn by using ESP weren't successful, donations of this are useless.
- We regret that bed accommodations in the kitchen are no longer in service.
- A root cellar is being dug in the kitchen target.
- The greenhouse is home to leafy green plants now. It is located a 100 yards or so past evolution creek.

RIGHT ON.

IT IS MESSY,
BUT IT'S FUN!

The civilian candle corps recently put out a new line of 100% post-consumer candles - in an array of rainbow colors. This was after the candle supply was completely ~~exhausted~~ depleted and donations were not forthcoming. Direct Action was taken! The operation was fun and allowed us to reuse nasty petroleum products.

★ HOW TO MAKE ★
warner creek candles!

- ① collect all the drip-pings + deadends of candles laying around
- ② cut into small pieces + put into glass jars.
- ③ put glass jars into big pot of boiling water
- ④ watch wax melt
- ⑤ when melted take jars out, put on counter
- ⑥ let jars slightly cool
- ⑦ drip hemp twine into wax repeatedly, alternating colors, to your personal preference
- ⑧ hang to dry cool when thick enough.

DEFEND THE FORESTS!

WARNER WILDLIFE!!!

A black bear was sighted around Clearcut hut, which is about 1½ miles above basecamp. Last Sunday afternoon, that is.

Cat droppings (or scat)?
were discovered this week. Debate centered around what kind of cat.

Brave chipmunk ~~s~~ ^{the} scamper through ~~the~~ warner creek settlement.

And skunks still do midnight food raids on the kitchen tarpee. (?)

NEW OUTDOOR OVEN
COOKS CRISP ARTICHOKEs

A quasi-native ~~earth~~ earthen oven has been constructed adjacent to the kitchen tarp. Cookies + cakes are on the way. Soon, Warner will be fossil-fuel-free for cooking.

CASCADIA VS. OAKRIDGE
BASKETBALL GAME NEARS

Still in the planning stage, this event is closer to reality, due to 2 days of outreach in Oakridge. talked with town & school officials. Late June date?

WARNER CREEK SLIDESHOW
TRAVELS NORTH ~~IN WINTER~~
TO PORTLAND & SEATTLE
AFTER ASTONISHING
ARCATA AUDIENCE! (CA)

WOMYN UNITE!

The womyn of Warner Creek circled in little bunchgrass meadow June for a full moon gathering. It was beautiful to have 27 strong womyn sing, dance, pray + cast a spell to heal our forests.

The womyn are bringing rituals back to the movement and we all hope this tradition continues.
(June is Blue Moon month)
